Miss Mabel Merriam, who has been vis

Woodward & Lothrop

New York-WASHINGTON-Paris

Special Sale of Men's Suits and Overcoats.

W E offer several lots of Men's Spring Suits, Overcoats and Trousers at less than the usual prices.

They are strictly high-class goods; materials are all-wool, and they are cut and made by men tailors who have had many years' experience in only high-grade work.

Lot I-Men's All-wool Suits, in a variety of fancy effects and navy blue serges; all sizes. These suits are made in a first-class manner and and Mrs. Chatard, Col. Raspoport, milisplendidly finished.

$12.50 each. Values, $15.00 and $18.00 each.

Lot 2-Men's Fine Suits, all-wool, in light and medium effects, some half-lined; beautiful patterns and all new, fresh goods, produced for this season. All sizes.

$16.50 each. Values, $22.50 and $25.00.

Also a Special Lot of Spring Top-coats and Overcoats

In a variety of styles, colors and effects; all new and strictly up-to-date in every respect.

Jamestown Expostion, they having accompanied the Ambassador, Baron Mayor devery respect.

Stool each. Values, $22.50 and $25.00.

$15.00 each. Values, $22.50 and $25.00.

$15.00 each. Values, $22.50 and $25.00.

$2.50 and $3.00 Fancy Vests, $1.95.

While a construction of the Binds of HULL stocks, sizes complete, variety large—a condition that prevails until after the great demand inside gossamer and medium weights; full sleeves, half sleeves, and several kinds with no sleeves; drawers with full-length or short inseams. Drawers made of gauze, balbriggan, nainsook, India crepe, cotton mesh and linen mesh, in knee lengths.

We are also Washington agents for the "Dermophile" Natural Gray, Strictly All-wool Underwear, which is warranted unshrinkable.

Showing this in all weights. Prices, $2.50 and upward. Light-weight Fabrics in Union Suits-balbriggan and lisle thread; three lengths of legs (short, medium and long) to each body size. Prices, $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00 each.

Silk Department Sale of Novelty "Rajahs."

E offer a special lot (527 yards) of Novelty Rajah Silks at a third less than the usual price. Rajahs are among the most father, who is paralleled. popular silks this season, and this lot consists of handsome novelty effects in stripes, plaids, and checks.

Desirable for entire suits, waists and separate skirts, and especially suitable for seashore wear.

$1.00 the yard. Regular price, $1.50.

Odd and Artistic Screens.

COMBINATION of the useful and the artistic. Useful, because of the many purposes to which they can be put, and in any part of the house. Artistic, because of the great number of rich, odd and unique designs, and in styles for all purposes.

We have just closed out from a prominent manufacturer a large lot

A lot of 3-fold Mission Oak Screens, filled with

$3.00 each. Value, $4.50.

A lot of 4-fold Japanese Fire Screens, with pretty Special price, $3.00 each.

Women's Footwear.

$8.00 to $75.00.

A lot of 4-fold Japanese Screens,

$6.00 each. Value, $8.00.

E SPECIALLY careful consideration is given W E have on sale a special lot of Women's Oxford eration is given to foot fashion nowadays. Our stock contains all the latest designs in shoes-those that show thought of comfort as well as made of patent coltskin, with dull elegance. Low shoes are the prime favor- and 3-eyelet Blucher styles, with ites and are shown in every known Cuban heels. Attention is called to new arrivals in Corintl Ties, of demi calfskin and patent leather. Mand stylish and very desirable for warm weather, $5.00 a pair.

Attention is also called to a line of Tan Russia Calfskin 3-eyelet Ties, with welt sole, high arch, plain toe and Cuban heel. A well-made and well-fitting Oxford.

$4.00 a pair.

Special Sale of Women's Oxfords.

Ties, bought at a price concession. They are kidskin quarters, in 3-eyelet Court welt and turn soles; some with

They are new goods, made on the most popular lasts, and, considering the great advance in leathers, they are excellent values.

$1.95 a pair. Regularly $2.50 and $3.50.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP

German Military Attache and Mrs. Korner Entertain.

GUESTS OF MRS. ROOSEVELT

Naval Attache of Italian Embassy Guest of Honor at Function Given by French Attache and Mme. de Wed California Senator.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt are ntertaining at the White House Mrs. J. West Roosevelt and Mrs. Clifford Rich-

The military attache of the German Embassy and Mme. Korner entertained at dinner last night at their home on Seventeenth street. Their guests were Gen, and Mrs. J. Franklin Bell, Gen, and having been at one time attached to the Mrs. William P. Duvall, Maj. and Mrs. German Embassy here. Mrs. William P. Duvail, Maj. and Mrs. Wilcox, Capt. William Mason Wright, U. S. A., and Mr-and Mrs. Wright, Maj. Davila, of the Mexican Embassy; Mr, and tary attache of the Russian Embassy, and Col. Dickhuth and Miss Dickhuth, house guests of Maj. and Mme. Korner. Col. Dickhuth was one of the Kaiser's representatives at Pittsburg during the emonies connected with the Carnegie

The naval attache of the French Emsame snage, trimined in verteet. She carbassy and Mme. de Blanpre entertained a luncheon party yesterday at their home on Eighteenth street, complimentary to the naval attache of the Italian Embassy tenth street. and Mme. Pfister, who are spending son time here, after returning from the Jamestown Exposition, they having ac-companied the Ambassador, Baron Mayor des Planches, to the opening ceremonies. They make their home in New York.

who afterwards resigned from the army and entered law. At that time the family hold another dance at the Arlington on Saturday evening, Mrs. Thomas H. Carprises, for which services the State neg-

Two or three years ago Miss Mulan and her sister, Miss May Mullan, starfled Washington society, of which they have been members ever since their girlhood, Mel Stuare of the Her Stuare of the H by opening a laundry on Connecticut avenue a few block below their home in the same fashionable thoroughfare. Their friends, when they had gotten their breaths, proceeded to take the matter as a huge joke, and quibbed the young women on their enterprise, asking them

Mrs. Pinchot left Washington vesterday and, with Mr. Pinchot, will sail Saturday and, of the Austrian Embassy: Commander Jose Moneta, of the Argentin navy; Commander Don Virgilio Morens women on their enterprise, asking them when they met, for instance, how they could leave the tubs, &c. But the Misses Mullan stuck to it, and it has thrived and is now a most successful business, bringing in a considerable profit beyond the living it has given the family, while the older sister was trying to put through the father's claim.

Miss May Mullan is now abroad, having gone to Italy to meet her relative.

ing gone to Italy to meet her relative, Mrs. Henley Smith, whose husband re-cently died there. On account of this recent death in the family the wedding, We have just closed out from a prominent manufacturer a large lot of three and four fold Screens, in this season's latest effects, which we offer at very special prices:

A lot of 3-fold Mission Oak Screens, filled with double burlap and interlining, with either wood or tapestry panel in top.

Special price, $7.50 each.

A lot of 3-fold Light Oak Screens, filled with good each.

A lot of 3-fold Light Oak Screens, filled with good each.

A lot of 3-fold Light Oak Screens, filled with good each.

Special price, $7.50 each.

A lot of 3-fold Light Oak Screens, filled with good each.

Sq. 00 each.

Sq.

Higgins, Miss Mary Conners, Miss Eliza-beth Laughran, Miss Mary St. Clair, Miss Marie Fagan, Miss Margaret Cummings.

STRANGERS

-in the city are invited ta visit our store, which is considered one of the places of recognized in-

Sole agents for the Original Washington Souvenir Spoons.

GALT & BRO., Established Over a Century,

Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,

1107 Penna. Avenue.

Miss May Bradley, Miss Blanche Mac-Mahon, Miss Helen Schofield, and Miss Helen Linehan, as the guests of honor. The house was elaborately decorated with the class colors-yellow and whiteworked out with massings of dogwood, primroses and daisles in appropriate places. Mrs. Carter had Mrs. and the Misses Egan, Mrs. A. W. Dunn and the members of Trinity College Auxiliary board receiving with her. In addition to the June graduates there were present Miss Martha Koch, Miss Marie Bach, Miss Maud Hilger, Miss Gertrude Johnson, Miss Edith Armstrong, Miss Lena Armstrong, Miss Towers, and Miss Walters, of Montana, who are attending ering from Famine.

ters, of Montana, who are attending school in this city.

There were several hundred guests, including the senior class of Georgetown University and the senior class of the Catholic University. iting in Philadelphia, is now the guest of Col. and Mrs. Clarence Edwards at their when they arrived in Washington to when they arrived in Washington to dine with President Roosevelt and see the sights. They are four square meals "to the good," but it will take a few more of the same to put them in first-class condition. It was a trying experience that they had Tuesday, even for old sea dogs. Lying fogbound in Chesapeake Bay for half a day was bad enough, but The officers of the Associated Charities say they have been encouraged by the responses made to their appeals this season. It is stated that the fear of having to cut down the necessary work has been dispelled by the assistance received from many donors and that all possible danger will be removed by the collection of $985, the amount which is now asked for in their-eight $10 contributions. Capt. von Rebeur Paschwitz, of the the sights. They are four square meals German navy, and one of the visiting "to the good," but it will take a few officers, is well known in Washington, more of the same to put them in first-Miss Edna Alexandra Muir and Dr. sea dogs. Lying fogbound in Chesapeake Elmer Fahey Yount were married at the Bay for half a day was bad enough, but Temple Baptist Church Tuesday by Rev. the fact that the food gave out and that

Dr. Muir, father of the bride. The ushers were Mr. Myron Yount, brother of the bridegroom; Mr. Roland R. Roderick, Mr.

The steamer in which they left Old bridegroom; Mr. Roland R. Roderick, Mr. Arthur B. Travers, of Baltimore, Md., and Mr. William F. Lemon. The plat-form and pulpit were bowered in paims and marguerites. The couple entered the church together, the bridal toilet being of ecru voile and a stylish hat in the same shade, trimmed in velvet. She carried the white prayer book from which dinner and their beds were all right.

Tuesday night at St. Thomas' Church Miss Florence J. Heaton and Mr. Stuart Bradford Marshall, of Pittsburg, were fine; shirts have full or half sleeves, silk-trimmed front and French neck; fine; shirts have full or half sleeves, silk-trimmed front and French neck; fine; shirts have full or half sleeves, silk-trimmed front and French neck; fine; shirts have full or half sleeves, silk-trimmed front and French neck; fine; shirts have full or half sleeves, silk-trimmed front and French neck; fine and Mr. George Russell Lukens, a State senato. of California. The engagement is une culmination of a romance begun when, a year or so ago, derwear, which we show in all weights. Prices, $2.00 and upward. Ask for booklet.

We are also Washington agents for the "Dermophile" Natural We are also Washington agents for the "Dermophile" Natural The engagement is announced of Miss Mullan, daughter of Capt. John Mullan, and Mr. George Russell Lukens, a State senato. of California. The engagement is une culmination of a romance begun when, a year or so ago, discovering the color scheme of Mercler, of Virginia: Mr. Anthony Dibrect the room being green and white. The Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoge, of State of California for claims due her father, who was a West Point graduate, who afterwards resigned from the army.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mullan J. Sneeringer, Mr. William J. Sneeringer, Mr. Shoeber Burrows, and Mr. Shoeber Burrows, and Mr. Anthony Dibrect the room being green and white. The Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Hoge, of State of California for claims due her father, who was a West Point graduate, who afterwards resigned from the army.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mullan J. Sneeringer, Mr. William J. Sneeringer, Mr. Shoeber Burrows, and Mr. Anthony Dibrect the room being room being the ball of Baltimore, and Mr. Anthony Dibrect the room being room being the ball of Baltimore, and Mr. John Miss Katherine Poorbaugh, Mr. Fred G.

Boyce, ir., Mr. William J. Sneeringer, Mr. Shoeber Burrows, and Mr. The Georgetown University crew will Tall palms screened the musicians from hold another dance at the Arlington on view, and gave a festal air to the room view, and gave a festal air to the room guest of Mrs. Eden Kipp, of 1225 N street northwest.

Mrs. Pinchot left Washington yesterday

Lieut. Charles K. Rockwell, adjutant at the Washington Barracks, announces no more hops this season. The last one

CHILDREN'S SONG FESTIVAL. Benefit for Playgrounds Funds

horus to remain away from school for chorus to remain away from school for Japanese Embasy; the Mexican Amaha half day May 16, when the dress rehearsal is to be given and to which a nominal admission of 25 cents will be charged. All pupils of the schools who have purchased tickets for this performance will also be excused early in order to attend. This performance will begin at 2 p. m. Roxborough are to witness the perform 3 p. m.

Tickets for both performances will be on sale with the principals of all of the public school buildings for white pupils n the city as fast as the committee can of the United States battle ship Missou send them out. These, however, will only be general admission tickets, which will be redeemable for their face value for reserved seats at the box office.

Officers Visit Salvation Army, Maj. William O. Hunter, Staff Capt. Frank Lyon, of Philadelphia, and Staff ing Secretary of Navy Newberry.

home in Lafayette square. Miss Johns Schroeder, daughter of Capt. Seaton Schroeder, U. S. N., has gone to Norfolk to visit her sister, Mrs. Moulton K. Johnbetter yesterday than they did Tuesday.

the first twelve hours. They had a good Prof. John J. Rotherme Admirals' Rations Cut Short.

But Tuesday morning when the fog ifted and the vessel, which had been Speed Tests Will Be Held on the Ponchored all night, resumed her way to Washington, there was a scarcity of food. All day long the famine continued. The

The guests, who sat round the large table in the dining-room, from whose employed by the State in several enterprises, for which services the State neglected to pay him. A year or so ago Miss Mullan decided to collect the money of possible, for her father, and went to California for that purpose. She stayed with Mrs. Eleanor Martin, who is one of the social leaders of the Pacific Coast, and at her home she met Senator Lukens, who became interested in her claim against the State, and, incidentally, in the claimant.

Miss Mullan has just made another trip to California, from which she returned Moncay, bringing with her the news of her engagement to Mr. Lukens, and also the news of the successful culmination of her suit, whereby she has collected several thousand dollars for her collegted several thousand dollars for her so ago Miss Mullan has just made another trip to California, from which she returned Moncay, bringing with her the news of her engagement to Mr. Lukens, and also the news of her esuit, whereby she has collected several thousand dollars for her several thousand dollars for her colleged with Mrs. Maurice Francis Eagen, Mrs. George Lloyd Magruder, and Mrs. Harry M. Calbaugh acting as hostesses of the crew, as such the salesses of the crew, whose only source of revenue is from at the yoluntary constitutions of students and alumni. In addition to the usual attendance of George-town on that afternoon.

Cards have also been sent to the girls and men of the dancing set in Washingham and alumni. In addition to the usual attendance of George-town on that afternoon.

Cards have also been sent to the girls and men of the dancing set in Washingham and alumni. In addition to the usual attendance of George-town on that afternoon.

Cards have also been sent to the girls like in the dining-room, from whose south wall looks down a very fine portrait to be queen Victoria, were Rear Admiral Sir George Neville and Mrs. Neville, compliance of George-town the voluntary constitutions of the voluntary constitution of the valuntary constitution of the valuntary constitution of the valuntary con discipline in force at the college with regard to night permissions in town, Georgetown social events have been few this year, and this same discipline is the cause of the early hours—8 to 12—set for this dance. The arrangements are in charge of the manager of the crew, John McH. Stuart, and a committee from the various schools of the university.

Of the embassy personnel; Miss Norris, Col. James, the military attache, and Mr. Seeds, of the British Embassy.

Many Distinguished Guests.

At the reception were, among the three or four hundred guests, Rear Admiral Hermann Pleskott, of the Austrian navy; Commodore Kalau von Hofe and Capt. Commodore Kalau von Hofe and Capt. von Rebeur Paschwitz, of the German navy; Capt, Ludwig Ritter von Hoeh Mrs. M. C. Rerbell, of Panama, is a Vera, all visiting officers. Also the Sec retary of State and Mrs. Root, Assistant Secretary and Mrs. Bacon, Secretary the Treasury Cortelyou, Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Garfield, Secretary of Commerce and Labor and Mrs. Straus took place last Thursday evening, at the barracks.

Admiral Dewcy, Gen, and Mrs. Ben, Con, Bromwell, Lieut, Commander and Mrs. Albert Key, Military Attache of the German Embassy and Mme, Korner, Naval Attache of the German Embassy and International Kindergarten Union, being held there this week.

Admiral Dewcy, Gen, and Mrs. Ben, Con, Bromwell, Lieut, Commander and Mrs. Albert Key, Military Attache of the German Embassy and Mme. Elbbinghaus, Capt. and Mrs. Pills-bury, Capt. and Mrs. Seaton Schroeder, Rear Admiral Thomas, Capt. and Mrs. took place last Thursday evening, at the Admiral Dewcy, Gen, and Mrs. Bell, Col Rear Admiral Thomas, Capt, and Mrs. Comly, the Italian Ambassdor, Baron Mayor des Planches; Lieut. Pfister, naval attache of the Italian Embassy, and Mme. Pfister, the Austrian Ambassador, Baron Hengelmuller; Baron Ambrozy, of the Austrian Embassy; the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, Cant. Fourther, military entered the University of California, from which he graduated, after which he entered law. He is now a most successful lawyer and prominent in politics, having been a close personal friend of former Gov. Pardee. He was seriously injured in an automobile accident last fall, and has just returned from a trip to Japan, where he went to recuperate.

Mrs. Carter, wife of Senator Carter, of Montana, brought together a large company of college and university young people Tuesday with the senior class of Trinity College. Miss Alice Ryan, president Rosevelt in regard to the Freeman, Miss Mary Green, Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, Miss Elizabeth Kennedy, Miss M. McKenna, Miss Cecelia Kelly, Miss Katharine Doyle, Miss Mabel Heading, Miss Mary Conners, Miss Elizabeth Laughran, Miss Mary St. Clair, Miss beth Laughran, Miss Mary St. Clair, Miss Clair, Miss Mary Conners, Miss Elizabeth Moore, Miss Mary Conners, Miss Cecelia Recaffer Miss Mary Conners, Miss Mary Conners Superintendent Chandler of the public schools has given instructions to the teachers to allow all children in the Lieut. Commander Taniguchi, of ti Japanese Embasy; the Mexican Am bassador and Mme. Creel, and Minister.

ance of "Noah's Ark," the new mi comedy, at the New National Theater, t The party will occupy four of the lowe boxes at the playhouse, and will be charge of Lieut. Scott, of the U. S. ba tle ship Missouri. Following the play supper will be served in honor of t distinguished guests. The boxes will decorated in the American and Britt emblems. Miss Clare Kummer, auth of "Noah's Ark," will attend the Natio Capt. Baille, of New York City, are vis-iting a number of the Salvation Army al to-night to see how her new play corps in the Southern States, and will assist in the services in the local corps to-night. Maj. Hunter will give the address of the evening, while both the staff captains will render instrumental and vocal music.

NEEDS NINETY-EIGHT HELPERS

Associated Charities Makes Appeal for Further Subscriptions.

Ninety-eight helpers are being sough Officers of War Ships Recov- by the Associated Charities, accord ing to a statement just issued by its finance committee. Ninety-eight people can solve the problem which confronts the association, and can assure the con ADMIRALS ON SHORT RATIONS tinuance of its work without seriou sacrifices until next November. By give ing $10 each ninety-eight subscribers can make up the balance needed to com Officers Tendered Luncheon by Act- plete the budget of the society for the current season. The finance committee announces its desire to complete the rais-Brilliant Dinner and Reception at British Embassy—Are Guests of the Military at Fort Myer.

The admirals and subordinate officers of the foreign and American naval vessels now lying in Hampton Roads felt better yesterday than they did Tuesday, when they arrived in Washington to dine with President Roosevelt and see see the complete the raise announces its desire to complete the raise announces its desire to complete the raise announces its desire to complete the raise ing of the necessary funds before the meeting of the board of managers, Tuesday, May 14. The committee suggests that any persons who desire to complete the raise ing of the necessary funds before the meeting of the board of managers, Tuesday, May 14. The committee suggests that any persons who desire to complete the raise ing of the necessary funds before the meeting of the necessary funds have been experienced.

The following contributions, received a:

It is street and acknowledged by John
Joy Edson, treasurer, have brought down the needed balance to the amount men-

TORPEDO BOATS ARRIVE.

tomac To-day.

Five black-coated and dangerous-looking torpedo boats crept into the harbor yes

Army Orders.

Private GLEN C. FONGER, Seventh Recruit Company, recruit depot, Columbus Burracks, transferred to band, Twenty-seventh Infantry, to Fort Monroe, thenes to Hayana.

Apt. JAY J. MORROW. Corps of Engineers, detailed as one of the commissioners of the District of Columbia, vice Maj. JOHN BIDDLE, Corps of Engineers, who will proceed to San Francisco, relieving Maj. WILLIAM W. HARTS.

Corps of Engineers Maj. Biddle will also report to commanding general, Pacific Division, as chief engineer officer of that division, relieving Maj. Harts.

Maj. Harts. cruit FREDERICK W. BUSH, infantry, For Logan, Colorado, transferred to Hospital Corp

as private.
cruit JESSE I, HUDGINS, infantry, recruit depot, Fort Slocum, transferred to Hospital Corps illowing changes, Corps of Engineers, ordered:
tt. FRANK C. BOGGS, from Pittsburg to Wheeling, relieving Maj. GEORGE A. ZINN, who will proceed to Portland, relieving Maj. EDWARD BURE.

WARD BURR
hirst Lieut. ARTHUR M. WHALEY, assistant surgeon, detailed member retiring board, vice Map.
HENRY D. SNYDER, surgeon.
tivate WILLIAM ROGERS, Hospital Corps, now at Washington Barracks, report to commanding officer, General Hospital, for duty with Company C. Hospital Corps.

Hospital Corps.
c CHARLES E. MOORE, Treop H, First
c CHARLES Em Houston, transferred to Sig

Cavalry, Fort Sam Houston, transferred to Sig-nal Corps, to Fort Omaha.

"Invites SAMUEL C. HUNTER and HUGH L. MOORE, Hospital Corps, from General Hos-pital, Washington Barracks, to Fort Myer. rst Class Private WALTER W. MILEWSKI, Signal Corps, on cable boat Cyrus W. Field, discharged from the army, cruit EDWARD 'A. SEGAITZ, infantry, recruit depot, Fort Slocum, transferred to Hospita Corps as private, to General Hospital, Washing ton Barracks, for duty with Company C. Hos pital Corps, al. JOHN RIDDLE, Corps of Engineers, detailed member examining board at San Francisco, vio Maj. WILLIAM W. HARTS, Corps of Engi

BERTRAM T. CLAYTON, quartern take charge office purchasing commissary, New Orleans, during absence of Capt. ARTHUR M. EDWARDS, commissary, ivate VICTOR KRASNEY, Company H, Second Infantry, in confinement at Fort Logan, dis-charged without honor from the army by reason of describin. of desertion.

Private First Class DILMUS B. BRASELTON,
Hospital Corps, from Fort McPherson to Depot of Recruits and Casuals, Fort McDowell, thence to Philippines as assistant to Dental Surgeon GEORGE L. MASON.

Maj. MARLBOROUGH C. WYETH, surgeon, to
Army and Navy General Hospital, Hot Springs.

Naval Orders. M. G. COOK, O. G. MURFIN, and F. D. RNS, detached Naval Academy, to duty ection with fiting out Olympia, Navy Yard, connection with fiting out Olympis, Navy Yard, Norfolk.

Chaplain C. H. DICKINS, detached Kearsarge, to Tennessee.

Carpenter S. C. BURGESS, to Navy Yard, Norfolk.

Warrant Machinist C. JOHANSON, detached Illi-nois, hence, wait orders.

Warrant Machinist T. O'DONNELL, detached New Jersey, home, wait orders.

Jersey, home, wait orders.

Warrant Machinist A. PETERSON, detached Franklin, to Illinois.

Pharmacist T. N. PHILLIPS, detached Naval Hospital, New Fort Lyon, to Naval Medical School Washington.

MOVEMENTS OF VESSELS-The following movements of vessels were reported to the Bureau of Navigation:

Arrived—April 39, Saturn, at Mare Island; Wasp, at New Orleans. May 1—Stringbam, Wilkes, Stockton, DeLong, and Blakely, at Washingtón; Concord, at Swatow.

Salied—April 39, Scocpion, from San Juan for Culebra; Milwaukee, from Mare Island for Santa Barbara; Annapolis, from Midway for Laysan and Henolulu.

"NO CREAM TASTES LIKE FUSSELL'S."

"Good Enough" materials are not the kind used in making FUS-

SELL'S ICE CREAM.

M. T. FUSSELL 1427 N. Y. Ave. 'Phone M. 1513.

Repaired, Cleaned and treated to assure absolute safety during summe months. We will clean

Oriental Rugs

small rug FREE. M. N. HEKIMIAN & CO., 13th and G sts. nw. 'Phone M. 2063y

Washington's Exclusive Oriental Rug Store. Write for Illustrated Circular.

DULIN & MARTIN CO.

Refrigerator

-Best for More -Than 60 Years

It could never have maintained this record had it not possessed merits above the ordinary. Every feature conducive to perfect refrigeration is embodied in the "Eddy." It's a refrigerator on which you can always depend—one that will produce the MAXIMUM RE-SULTS AT-MINIMUM COST.

If you buy a refrigerator this season, decide on an "Eddy," and you'll never have occasion to regret your de-

UTAll sizes in stock, includ-ing special sizes for use in apartment houses.

Dulin & Martin Co. Pottery, Porcelain, China, Glass, Silver, &c.

1215 F St. and 1214-18 G St.

-Fine Imported —and Domestic

CIGARS

UR stocks offer exceptional advantages in quality, variety, and price. All well known brands of Havana Cigars, Key West Cigars, Tampa Cigars, Porto Rican Cigars, Prices, $5 to $28 per hundred.

G. G. Cornwell & Son, Grocers and Importers, 1412-1414 Penna. Avenue.

Beach Wagon, Nearly new, with elegant set of double hand-made harness; will be sold separately

-All Qualities. -All Prices. You save money on every-thing you buy here.

$2.00 KROEGER'S UMBRELLA STORE,

Let Us Tear Off That Old Paper In Your Home

618 NINTH STREET N. W.

and beautify the rooms of your house with fine new paper. The newest and most artistic designs will be found in our shop.

Our Prices Will Please You.

FOER-HERZOG CO. 724 13th Street N. W.

BEFORE YOU START

the spring cleaning be sure Thompson's Insect Powder HAS BEEN provided. It makes short work of bugs—roaches, moths, and all such home disturbers. In air-tight cans to preserve its efficacy, Secure a supply. PRICE. 10C, 18c, 28c, and 50c per can.

W. Thompson Pharmacy Frank C. Henry, Prop., 703 15th St.

Order Canoes Quick!

The demand for Canoes is unusually great. We have the best models of MORRIS, RUSHTON, and OLDTOWN canoes.

WALFORD'S. 909 Penna. Avenue N. W.

Reception, Wedding 'PHONE

For the Dinner,

MORTH

1741 JOHNSON AVE. Bet. R & S Sts. and 14th & 15th Sts. "LIGHT HIRING A SPECIALTY."

SAW YOUR AD IN THE HERALD